Revised Internal Committee with effect from 01.01.2025 Mentioned as per Annexure A

5. Complaints

5.1 Who

a. Any Aggrieved Woman from a KW Group workplace can approach any member of the IC with a complaint regarding Sexual Harassment.

b. Where the Aggrieved Woman is unable to make a complaint due to mental, physical incapacity or for any other reason, the designated representative (Includes aggrieved woman’s relative, friend, co-worker or any person who has knowledge of the incident, with the written consent of the aggrieved woman) as prescribed under the Act or Rules (hereinafter referred to as “Complainant”) can file the necessary complaint in the prescribed manner.

c. If the initial complaint is made to a person other than a committee member, upon receiving such a complaint, it will be the responsibility of the complaint receiver to report the same to the committee immediately

c. All concerns falling under the category of “Sexual Harassment”, received by any Company official, Ombuds person or any other employee of the Company shall be forwarded / directed to any member of the IC at the earliest and no later than one week of receipt, for further action by the IC.

5.2 How

a. The complaint should be submitted in writing to any member of the Internal Committee. However in case when such complaint cannot be made in writing any member of the Internal Committee shall render all necessary assistance to the woman for making the complaint in writing

b. The complaint should contain following details:

- i Name of Aggrieved Woman / Complainant
- ii Name of Respondent
- iii Details of incident or incidents
- iv Evidence, if available
- v Names and details of witnesses, if available

Copy of complaint along with supporting documents and names and address of witness shall be sent to Internal Complaints Committee to the email id hr1@kwgroup.in.

c. The IC should send one copy of the complaint to the Respondent within a period of seven working days.

d. The Respondent should file their reply to the complaint along with the list of documents, names and addresses of witnesses, within a period not exceeding ten working days from the date of receipt of the written complaint.

5.3 When

The complaint should be submitted within a period of three months from the date of the incident of Sexual Harassment, and in case of a series of incidents, within a period of three months from the date of the last incident. IC, for the reasons to be recorded in writing, can extend the time limit not exceeding three months, if it is satisfied that the circumstances were such which prevented the woman from filing a complaint within three months from the date of the incident of sexual harassment.

6. Conciliation

6.1 IC may, before initiating inquiry, at the request of the aggrieved woman take steps to settle the matter between her and the respondent through conciliation.

6.2 No monetary settlement shall be made as a basis of conciliation.

6.3 The conciliation process should be carried out and implemented in accordance with the Act and where a settlement is arrived at, the Internal Committee shall record the settlement and forward the same to the Employer to take action. The Internal Committee shall provide copies of settlement as recorded to the aggrieved woman and the respondent. However, when any term or condition of the settlement has not been complied with the Respondent, the IC shall proceed to make an inquiry into the following cases which are as follows and/or forward the complaint to the police as deemed fit by the IC.

- Aggrieved woman has not requested for an conciliation
- No Settlement has been arrived at during conciliation
- Complainant or aggrieved woman informs that any term or condition of the settlement has not been complied with the Respondent

7. Interim Measures

During inquiry, on a written request made by the Aggrieved Woman or Complainant, the IC may recommend the Employer to:

- a. transfer the Aggrieved Woman or the Respondent to any other team / department or other branch / location within the Company; or
- b. grant paid leave to the Aggrieved Woman up to a period of three months or until such time as the investigation is completed, whichever is earlier; or
- c. restrain the Respondent from reporting on the work performance of the Aggrieved Woman or writing her appraisal and assign the same to another person; or
- d. require the Respondent to remain or work from home or work out of an office where the Aggrieved Woman is not located, if this is considered necessary in the facts and circumstances of the case; or
- e. grant such other relief to the Aggrieved Woman as may be prescribed by the Act / Rules / applicable Standing Orders / Company Policy or as may be necessary.

On the Recommendation of the IC, the employer shall implement the recommendations and send the report of such implementation to the IC.

8. Inquiry Procedure

8.1 The IC shall inform the Employer of the fact of it having received a complaint.

8.2 In conducting the inquiry, a minimum of three members of the IC including the Presiding Officer shall be present.

8.3 The Presiding Officer shall chair the IC meetings. If the Presiding Officer is absent or unable to attend the meeting, then the members present shall elect a Presiding Officer for the meeting who shall be a senior woman employee from amongst the other members of the IC.

8.4 The parties shall not be allowed to bring in any legal practitioner to represent them in their case at any stage of the proceedings before the IC and IC shall follow the principles of natural justice during the course of proceedings

8.5 All complaints shall be investigated in a sensitive and confidential manner without disclosing the identity of the Complainant, the Respondent or any witness or any other confidential information or material in connection with the complaint.

8.6 The inquiry shall be completed within a period of ninety days.

8.7 Termination of Enquiry: The Committee may dismiss the inquiry or issue an ex-parte decision if the complainant or respondent respectively, remains absent for three consecutive hearing without a valid reason. A 15 days written notice will be provided to the concerned party before such dismissal or ex-parte decision

8.7 After completing its inquiry, the IC will submit recommendations and its report to the Employer for further action, if any, within ten days of the conclusion of the inquiry. The IC report will also contain recommendations on action, if any, required to be taken on the complaint and also corrective, preventive and other actions, if any, required from the Company.

9. Actions

9.1 The Company views Sexual Harassment of a woman very seriously and notwithstanding anything contained in any other Policy of the Company, the following acts shall constitute a misconduct and breach of ethical behavior:

- a) Sexual Harassment;
- b) Harassment or intimidation of a complainant or witness or other person in connection with a Sexual Harassment complaint;
- c) Disclosure of the identity or address of the complainant, the person complained against or any witness or any other confidential information or material in connection with a Sexual Harassment complaint;
- d) Making malicious allegations of Sexual Harassment against the Respondent;
- e) Making of a complaint of Sexual Harassment knowing it to be false;
- f) Producing a forged or misleading document before the IC.

However, it is clarified that a mere inability to substantiate a complaint or provide adequate proof will not constitute misconduct, or a breach of ethical behavior.

9.2 Misconduct or breach of ethical behavior mentioned in section 9.1 is punishable with appropriate disciplinary action in accordance with Company Policy and can include any of the following actions:

- a) written apology;
- b) written or verbal warning, reprimand or censure;
- c) withholding of promotion / pay rise / increments;
- d) deduction from salary of Respondent to be paid to Aggrieved Woman;
- e) termination of services;
- f) counseling;
- g) community service

9.3 Recommendation of the IC shall be acted upon by the Employer within a period of sixty days of the date of receipt of the IC report.

10. General

10.1 The Company will ensure compliance with all the requirements of the Act and Rules and will ensure that this Policy, including the IC member's information and the penal consequences of Sexual Harassment are displayed on the notice boards of all its administrative locations.

10.2 The Company will organize workshops and awareness programs at regular intervals for sensitizing the employees with the provisions of the Act and training programs and seminars for the members of the IC to effectively handle the complaints in the manner as prescribed in the Act and Rules.

10.3 In each calendar year, the IC shall prepare an annual report and submit the same to the Employer. The annual report shall also be submitted to the District Officer at such time as may be prescribed under the Act. The IC shall include in the annual report information regarding number of cases filed, their disposal under the Act and Rules; actions taken; number of complaints pending for more than 90 days and the number of workshops and awareness sessions conducted on Sexual Harassment.

10.4 As per the Companies (Accounts) Rules, 2014, a statement will be given as a part of the Director report that the Company has complied with provisions relating to the constitution of Internal Committee under the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013.

11. Appeal Clause

11.1 Any party dissatisfied or aggrieved by the implementation or non-implementation of the recommendations may file an appeal with the appellate authority, as per the Act and Rules, within 90days of receiving the recommendations.

12. Consequences of False/ Malicious Allegations

12.1 IF the committee comes to the conclusion that the allegation against the respondent is malicious, or any other person making the complaint has knowingly made a false complaint or produced forged or misleading documents, it may recommend action to the employer against the complainant. The recommended action should be comparable to the penalties proposed for the respondent in substantiated complaints. However, this does not extend to complaints where the investigation has remained inconclusive due to circumstances making the offences difficult to prove or complaints made in good faith

13. Policy Review

The Policy may be reviewed at the end of each calendar year by the Company to ensure that it remains consistent with the overall objectives of the Company and with the applicable laws. The Policy may be reviewed at shorter intervals if the law pertaining to Sexual Harassment changes before the stipulated time of review.

^ This policy is not exclusive its includes all the Provision and Section under the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013 including any notification & amendment issued by the government
